

Much progress has been made in the development of Lake Carnico during the past ~~summer~~ months and the general public is invited to tour the lake project on week ends and review the progress and the possibilities which it presents in the near future. Many of the original persons purchasing lots on the lake are now making their actual lot selections and it is anticipated that in the very early spring the sales of lots will commence again to all interested persons.